WHITE CLOUD, KANSAS: Thursday, : : : November 20, 1862.

TO TAX PAYERS.

We have a large amount of Doniphan and Brown ounty Warrants, which we will dispose of at the current market price. Persons having Taxes to pay in the above Counties, will save money by using the Warrants.

BUSINESS IN WHITE CLOUD .- Notwithstanding the hard times, there has been more business done in town, within two months past, than for a year previously. The streets are almost daily filled with the teams of farmers, who come to trade and bring in their grain. O. Bailey, within several weeks past, has shipped an immense amount of grain to St. Louis and Chicago.

This state of affairs only confirms what we have long contended for-that it only required men of means to enter rightly into business, and buy the farmers' produce, to make White Cloud an extensive trading point. Her natural advantages are not surpassed by any town on the river, and she is surrounded by the finest country west of the Missouri River. Why these advantages have not been observed and improved by men of capital, has always been a mystery to us. A few things are needed here yet, to make trade run smoothly. Our lumber trade has always been extensive. A good flouring mill would be a greater help to the town than anything else. This, and a liberal investment of capital in several important branches of trade and business, would speedily draw to our place the trade of the surrounding country, which naturally belongs here, but which has been forced to go to other places and White Cloud would in a very short time become a business point second to none between Leavenworth and Omaha.

Sol. Miller is one of the Republican candidates for Senator from Doniphan County. He will be elected, and will be a useful member, though his head is wrong on the Henderson Amendment question. He will have the good sense to drop that subject, though .- Topeka

The Record has its full amount of assurance. It winked at a systematic bolt of the regular State ticket, in certain Counties, on account of local interests : and since the election, it has been plastering over, and indorsing the sound Republicanism of, certain men who were elected on the Mongrel ticket, and who did their best to defeat the Republican ticket .-This the Record did for the sake of local interests; and now it hopes we will betray the known and expressed wishes our constituents, and support rival interests, for the benefit of which principles were sold, party betrayed, and honor thrown to the dogs. That may be the Record's style, but it is not ours. We may be able to accomplish no good, but we shall endeavor to act honorably; and whenever we feel that we cannot obey the almost unanimous will of those who elected us, we shall resign our seat, and come home.

AN OUTRAGE .- A squad of soldiers. under direction of an officer, a few days since entered the office of the Crusader, published at Paola, in Miami County. and after insolently catechising the printers, proceeded to pi the type in the office, scattering it over the floor The Crusader has been a strictly loval paper. The only wrong we know of it is, that it supit had a perfect right to do.

State Printing.

Not wishing to practice too much upto extort exorbitant sums from the State, for printing purposes, all of which fell upon the tax-payers. They succeeded in upsetting the contracts obtained by those in he combination, and in reducing the prices for the work about one-half, thus saving the State some $5,000 or $6,000 on the last year's printing alone. They then offered and secured the passage of amendments to the law, which would go far to prevent swindling combinations in the future. The printing has just been let for the coming year at about one fifth the rates of last year. There may have been combinations in these contracts; but if so they, were for the purpose of putting the rates at the lowest possible figures, instead of the highest. We give, belowthe rates of last year's letting, before the Printing Committee investigated and exposed the nice little arrangement which existed, and amended the law, and compare them with this year's lettings, that the mblic may note the difference :

Small-Pox.

Our town is now free from this disease he Mormon creed of "blessed be he who but it is raging in a neighborhood about bloweth his own trumpet," etc., we will a mile south of here, in a very malignant nevertheless remark, that we have the form. Dr. Shreve informs us, that he gratification of knowing, by the fruits, has just been to see ten patients in that that the labors of the Printing Committee neighborhood, all down with small-pox of the last Legislature have resulted in no of the very worst type. One family, conpecuniary disadvantage to the State. The sisting of a father and seven children, are sis: Committee found the printing law some- all down with it. The Dr. says their what imperfect, and under it an extensive groans and shricks can be heard some system of combination existed, the object distance from the house, and that in-doors of which was to prevent competition, and the stench is insufferable. A man who on or before the first day of January next it will go the rounds there. Another family in the neighborhood have taken it, and are all duly represented in the House; there will doubtless be another house of that consequently his proclamation of suffering. Still another family have just freedom is null and void, and they are got rid of it.

This disease, when it first made its appox; but others, who pretended to know better, disputed it, and at least half a dozen names were given it, by as many different persons. At one time, we feared there would be a regular war in town upon the subject. General vaccination was advised, but no one beeded the warning. But as cold weather approached, and the disease assumed a more serious form, people began to be convinced; and now, we believe, the most stubborn do not dispute that it is genuine small-pox. But why any person should neglect the pecautionary measure of vaccination, even when a disease with a disputed name is prevailing, and when it would at any and all times be a protection, we cannot imagine. There are hundreds of persons, in some instances whole families, throughout the country, who have never been vaccinated. Others do not recollect whether they have been or not, or whether it "took well." Why neglect it a moment longer, when any hour might expose them to the disease? As the weather grows colder, the disease becomes more dangerous and fatal-Another thing should be guarded against. We refer to persons, just recovering from the disease, visiting their neighbors and mixing with the public as soon as they are able to crawl around. Our sentiment is, that any person who, while yet full of scabs, or before the contagion is thoroughly eradicated from his system and his clothing, goes among those whom he does not know to be protectedted against it, deserves to be kicked out, without any ceremony. The decease has been in a great measure spread in this manner; and no person who has any regard for the welleing of the community, will do it. Some Secesh, giving a Munchausen account of Roger A. Pryor's wonderful adventures with Federal soldiers, describes Lumkin's Mills. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. CAMP NEAR RECTORTOWN, VA., November 7, 1862.

Officers and Soldiers of the Army of the Potomac: An order of the President devolves upon Major-General Burnside the command of the army. In parting with you I cannot express the love and gratitude I bear you. As an army, you have grown up under my care. In you I have never found doubt or coldness. The battles you have fought under my command will proudly live in our national history.— The glory you have acheived—our mutual perils and fatigues-the graves of our comrades fallen in battle and by diseasethe broken forms of those whom wounds and sickness have disabled—the strongest associations which can exist among men, unite us still by an indissoluble tie. We shall ever be comrades in supporting the Constitution of our country and the nationality of its people.
